Boys' School Suits.

With thousands of schoolboys, big and little, about to get back to town and into learning halls, it is natural that there will be demands for Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Furnishings.

It is good policy to begin the new season with new togs, for it gives a certain pride to the youngsters and lends vim and dash to their undertakings.

At what store to buy? Is that the problem that confronts you? What better place than Simpson Crawford's, where the youngster's every tip-to-toe want can be met, and rightly, too. Where stocks are large and new and bright—where selection is not handicapped, as varieties are great and choice-where prices are on a basis of temptingness that insure broad economy.

In view of the above facts 'twould indeed be unwise for any mother of boys to overlook the Simpson Crawford Co. Clothing Dept., or any other devoted to boys' and girls' wearables.
